

HELLENIK

Welcome to the Elliniki specialty restaurant!

Treat yourself to a little break from everyday life and spend relaxing hours with us enjoying refined Greek hospitality and delicious food.

With our dishes, we want to show you how diverse and creative Greek cuisine can be.

Starting from the original simplicity of the dishes, we use only the best quality ingredients to offer you an authentic taste experience.

With a deep connection to our homeland, we cook according to original Greek recipes - a culinary journey from the mountainous north to the islands in the south.

GOOD LUCK!

Want to learn more? Find out where our original Greek recipes and ingredients come from here:

Tzatziki

An appetizer made with Greek yogurt, cucumbers, olive oil and garlic.

Dolmadakia

Grape leaves stuffed with rice, chopped onions, nuts, and spices. These are cooked in wine and drizzled with olive oil and lemon juice.

Moussaka

A casserole made with stuffed eggplants and minced mutton. This is combined with minced meat, onions, garlic, chopped tomatoes, eggs, and parsley to form a mixture.

Papoutsakia

Hollowed-out eggplant halves fried in olive oil with shallots, garlic, tomatoes, grated cheese and minced meat.

Kritharaki

Small pasta in the shape of grains or rice, made from durum wheat semolina and water, mixed with a little tomato sauce, sometimes also mixed with real rice.

Fasolada

A Greek bean stew eaten during Lent. Cooked with tomatoes, peppers, and onions, and garnished with feta cheese.

Gyros

A Greek way of preparing meat. Tender, lean pieces of pork seasoned with salt, pepper, garlic, oregano, thyme, and coriander, served on a pita. Accompanied by tomatoes, onions, tzatziki, or coleslaw.
